1. Malkuth– Current situation
2. Yesod– The past of the situation
3. Hod– Thoughts
4. Netzach– Emotions
5. Tiphareth– Goal (what you think you need)
6. Geburah– What you need to cut back on
7. Chesed– What you need more of
8. Binah– Time frame for the project/question
9. Chokmah– First step to take
10. Kether– Driving force (What you really need)

Focus on a question or issue.

Shuffle and lay out 10 cards face down according to the pattern shown.

Take a small stone or crystal and toss it onto the spread. Whatever card it lands on (closest to), remove from the spread and set aside.

Turn over the remaining cards and interpret in relationship to their position climbing the Tree of Life.

Wherever the missing card had been represents a place where you will have to make a “jump” to get to the next level in realizing your goal/answering the question/solving the issue. Or it may, depending on the question, represent a lack of support or a challenge.

I know I can't put the discarded card back in the deck without peeking, so it will represent a lesson that you will learn or an inner strength that you will develop through the processes surrounding this question or issue.
